Opis produktu

1 Resin Miniature Rider, 1 x 27mm plastic base, 1 Command Card designed for the Ironclad Drake
While the greatest standing a Dweghom Warrior can attain is that of Hold Raegh, not all Raeghs are equal. The greatest amongst them are granted the title of Bergont Raegh and granted the honour of taking the hold's own banner into battle atop the back of the only creature strong enough to bear its weight: the Ironclad Drake. So powerful and deep is this honour, that this honour persists beyond death, his remains riding to battle atop the Ironclad Drake until another might match his achievements and claim his title. HOW THEY PLAY: Riding an Ironclad Drake is the supreme symbol of Aghm. A Hold Raegh who has achieved such feats to earn the right to ride a Drake seeks only more formidable and larger adversaries. Such a Raegh merely needs direction towards the nearest monster or any other seemingly "unyielding" obstacle.
